

Sacred & Initiatory Art Dedicated to the Divine Feminine

"Isis-Mari, Womb of Heaven" Valerie Chelonis 2004

Whether it is by painting, dancing, writing, or composing music, the creative process offers us the opportunity to heal on many levels and reconnect with our wholeness.

As a Sacred Artist, I have chosen painting as a way to achieve harmony and balance in my heart and to experience personal empowerment.

To paint is to embrace the fire within, the life-force inherent in all of creation, and to express that energy from within the deepest places of our hearts.

Artistic expression shatters the illusion surrounding who we are not, and unveils who we are beyond everyday human consciousness.

I paint intuitively and use colors, symbols, and patterns inspired by Sacred Geometry, the Goddess, and the indigenous cultures of the world.

These works of Sacred and Initiatory Art all hold gifts and were created to be used as tools for healing and transformation.

Each one provides an attunement to a specific frequency of energy.
